

try of Choices of Life.

26. Pray for Brenda Smith and her willingness to be involved in speaking at schools in Tasmania. Pray for an effective time of training and preparation when Bruce is there in early May.
27. Pray for plans and preparations for the Annual Dinner to be held on Saturday 25th June in Epping (Sydney). Pray for the keynote speaker, Bill Muehlenberg, as he is constantly alerting Christians to be clear-thinking on the issues of today. He will bring a remarkable wealth of information when he speaks at the dinner.
28. Praise God for Sally Baird (in Geelong) who actively organises schools when Bruce visits Victoria (in October). Pray for increased opportunities across Victoria and for others to support and assist Sally with the organisation.
29. Pray for plans to develop more pregnancy support services in Darwin. Pray for contacts that will assist in reaching young people, especially indigenous girls, with the value of unborn life.
30. Praise God for the increasing number of people that are seeking to share their story of their abortion decision. Pray for Richard who shared at the annual camp. As stories become available they will be added, in print or video format, to the website.
31. Pray for opportunities to visit, and to train presenters in, regional areas of NSW. It is vital that the message is not limited to the capital cities.

truth because it does not suit their ideology.

Another caller to the talk-back program decried the fact that these exporters were selling the live animals to make money and didn't really worry about how they are treated. However, do they object to the fact that abortionists make money at the expense of human babies and their mothers and go to great pains to deny that there are any real consequences. It's all legal and safe, they say. Maybe the truth just hasn't crossed their minds!

The bottom line is that only people are made in the image of God—not animals. Yes we should desist from abuse of animals but let's not overlook the truth about humans.

Angst over Live Exports

You could hear the vehement anger and disgust as they spoke about the plight of the sheep being exported by ship to the Middle East. They were going ballistic over the violation of the rights of the animals to be treated 'humanely', (whatever that means). The Animals Australia website declares "All animals deserve a life free from abuse." The website went on to say that these animals were being "sent around the globe to be slaughtered, most whilst fully conscious". Some of the callers that rang the radio talk-back said "If only people could see the appalling conditions—they would be up in arms. People need to see the pictures of these poor animals being slaughtered in the most barbaric conditions!"

However true all that may be, those same do-gooder animal activists have probably never watched a human baby being dismembered in the most barbaric situations. Maybe they need to see pictures of what really happens and they might become campaigners for the humane treatment of humans!

It is well known that many leaders—such as Peter Singer and Bob Brown of The Greens—in the animal rights movement are ardently pro-abortion. They remain wilfully ignorant of the NOTE: If the specific dated event is past then pray for the ongoing impact of that event or school visit.

1. Praise God for the Choices of Life camp held in January. Pray for the ongoing work of Linda and Sonja (Life Network Australia) as they seek to inform, inspire and empower Australians to be involved in prolife issues.
2. Pray for preparations for visiting schools in 2011 across Australia. Pray for those who will be assisting in contacting and organising speaking appointments. Pray for open doors of opportunity.
3. Praise God for the translation of the pre-birth development posters into simple English in preparation for use in indigenous communities in Australia, and overseas.
4. Pray for new, and return, opportunities in churches to present the vision of the Choices of Life. Praise God for churches that are willing to speak about these important issues and provide an opportunity for healing for those who are hurting.
5. Praise God for the presentations by Frances, Susan, Abigail and Laura at the camp. Pray that they will continue to be inspired and active in defending the unborn.
6. Praise God for the team, coordinated by Leighton Thew, that despatches the newsletter every 2 months.
7. Praise God for the people He has raised up to be involved in taking the message of life to schools. Pray for the ongoing search for, and training of, coordinators and presenters in each state.
8. Praise God for the faithful support of Peter Barnes (Chairman of the Choices of Life committee) and for his long term defence of the unborn. Thank God for his enlightening presentation at the camp.
9. Pray for those who are helping in the translation of the pre-born posters into 3 aboriginal languages—Kriol, Tiwi and Murrinpatha—for use in Top End communities.

10. Praise God for the contribution made by Theo and Richard at the camp and their ongoing campaign to increase awareness of the impact of abortion on men.
11. Praise God for those who financially support Choices of Life either on a regular or one-off basis. Pray for an increase support in 2011 to enable growth in the impact of the message in more schools.
12. Praise God for the faithful work of Judith Bond as she phones schools. It requires much persistence to obtain appointments. Praise God for her willingness to be involved.
13. Pray for Bruce as he has opportunity to speak at a Youth Conference at Lake Keepit (near Gunnedah) on 11th April. Pray for open hearts and minds to the message of the sanctity of life.
14. Praise God for the used stamps that arrive frequently into the Choices of Life office. They provide a valuable source of income by saving postage costs.
15. Bruce is anticipating being in Western Australia this year for the first time on behalf of Choices of Life. Pray for the development of contacts and schools that will grow the work in that state.
16. Praise God for the Diamond Pregnancy Support facility that is now opened and operating in Kingswood (western Sydney) close to an abortion clinic. Pray for lives that will be saved—both babies and mothers.
17. Thank God for Peter Barnes, Pat Christian, John Kingsmill and Leighton Thew as they faithfully serve on the Choices of Life management committee.
18. Praise God for the wonderful support from John Garrett who designed and does all the ongoing development of the Choices of Life website. Pray that students will find the information useful in their school assignments and will have a better understanding of the pro life issues as much more information is being added in coming months.

19. Pray for wisdom as the resource facility is being developed on the website. Pray that the pro-life resources, especially the Little Feet badges, will be used to impact the lives of many who would not have otherwise considered these issues.
20. Pray for plans to translate the pre-born posters into Telegu, Tamil and Hindi for use in taking the prolife message to the literacy centres in India.
21. Thank God for Brenda Awde-Cooper who is very capably helping to organise schools and contacts in Tasmania. Praise God for Sherrin Drew who organises a regular prayer and information evening specifically to support Choices of Life.
22. Pray for Julie Jordan and for the schools she speaks at each year in Sydney. Thank God for the desire she has to take the truth of the unborn to young people.
23. Pray for plans to be in Darwin in late July. It is anticipated that Bruce will travel to more remote communities with the message of life. He is also planning to return to Woolan- ing (an indigenous Christian school) as well as new contacts made when he was there in 2010.
24. Pray for Bruce's plans to be in South Australia in September. Pray for open doors as he follows up school contacts made when he was there last year.
25. Pray for the pastors, teachers and others that will be invited to a CDP (Christian Democratic Party) meeting in Armidale on 9th April. Bruce will be sharing about the minis-
